- Minior Handling
- Junior Handling
- Brace

The exhibition is held in two rings, one for each gender, both starting at 9:00 am. While the judge is placing in either of the rings, a short break will be made in the other ring.

Dogs awarded HP (honours) are invited to participate in the corresponding challenge class: Best Puppy, Best Veteran/Still Going Strong, Best Dog, Best Bitch.

Please check in the catalogue whether your dog is listed in breeder or progeny class; in this case contact your breeder or the sire's/dam's owner to check if your dog is selected for participation.

Photographer

All class winners will be photographed by Lillemor Böös. Lillemor is also happy to photograph other dogs - this can be arranged directly with her at the show.

Any five dogs with the same kennel prefix/suffix will get one complimentary group photo.

Miscellaneous

Competitions for the Club Championships in obedience and rally obedience are run at the same venue as Årets Border, Friday 1st June at 2pm and 5pm.

An introduction to Swedish earthdog work is provided all day Saturday, just off the show ground. Inexperienced Borders are guided through the first steps of training in a section of a mobile trial den, using fur as bait.

There are plenty of supplementary activities available for the family at Herrfallet, such as a playground, bathing in the lake, a miniature golf course, and plenty of footpaths.

Website for the venue: www.herrfallet.se

Accommodation

Camping site with spaces for recreational vehicles and caravans, with or without electricity. Self-catering cottages and hotel rooms are also available (hotel, no dogs allowed). Self-catering cottages can be accessed from 3 pm on the day of arrival. Please reserve your accommodation directly with Herrfallet, +46 589 401 10

Food

Friday 1st June, evening
